

¡somos médicos!

One goal this trimester: to be able to describe how a person is feeling

Let's talk about this picture in English.
How is she feeling? Turn & Talk

She is ...

- 1. Tired
- 2. In a bad mood
- 3. Sad

How do we say that in Spanish?

1. Ella está cansada
2. Ella está de mal humor
3. Ella está triste

¿Cómo está Spongebob?

How is Spongebob?

Give me 3 sentences.

Some possible answers...

1. Spongebob está emocionado
2. Spongebob está contento
3. Spongebob está de buen humor

Which sentence makes the most sense for this picture?

Show me the number with your fingers.

1. Él está enojada

2. Él está enojado

3. Él está triste

Brain Break!

Find a partner.

Make a funny face.

First person to laugh LOSES!

Find one more partner and repeat.

What does “está” mean?

IS

Let's talk about this picture in English.
How would you describe how she's feeling? Turn & Talk.

She IS ...

- Tired
- Sick

She HAS ...

- A fever
- A cold
- The flu

How do we say all that in Spanish?

Ella está...

cansada
enferma

Ella tiene ...

Una fiebre
Un catarro
La gripe

What does “tiene” mean?

HAS

¿Cómo está Spongebob?

How is Spongebob
feeling?

Give me

- 1 sentence with “está”
- 1 sentence with “tiene”

1. Spongebob está triste

2. Spongebob tiene dolor

What does “está” mean?

IS

Which sentence makes sense for this picture?

Show me the number with your fingers.

1. Él está enfermo

2. Él tiene escalofríos

3. Todas las respuestas
(all of the above)

EXIT TICKET!

Describe cómo
está la chica.

Describe how the girl is.

Write on your index card:

1 sentence using “está”

1 sentence using “tiene”